TO MY BEST FRIEND

Hi friend, good day! May I introduce you to my best friend?

His name is Emmanuel, he is a very admirable, awesome and a kind friend you will love to meet. I have known him for many years. Even as I am talking to you right now, I am still in love with him because he has changed my life. My connection to him is real and my relationship is for life.

This friend is the kind of person you would love to associate and be with. His character is flawless, ever intelligent and wise, never lacking in gentleness and care. A truly extra-ordinary person.

In my weakness and shortcomings, he shows me mercy and forgiveness, and his unconditional love encompasses me. The more time I spend with him, the more I find myself, my purpose and destiny. He is incredibly caring, a father to me. And I, his peculiar princess. With him I am absolutely secure, he is my delight and I am very much proud of him.

Do you know what? He has actually sent out a friendly request to everyone. His gracious and amazingly loving arms are open to embrace and accept anyone who would accept him. He is all and everything to his friends. He will never reject anyone that makes a choice to follow him.

His nature is love, humility, gentleness and meekness – he is more than willing. He is able to turn your life around for good and when he does, there is freshness, a newness to life as if one has been born again. It is so incredible that you literally cannot remain the same! He is not without standards though. His emphasis on right living is made clear in his word. His reassuring presence has always guided me. Even when I fail and disappoint, he is right there to pick me up again. All I need to do is call his name.

My excellent friend Emmanuel is right close, patiently waiting to be your friend too. Just imagine for a second his hand beckoning and his beautiful eyes looking directly to you, longing to know YOU and give you a hug. He wants to lavish his love on YOU too, to set his pure eyes on you. Just as he did to me.
